

Ozarks Ride

FAQs

SEPTEMBER 8-9, 2012

CLEVER HIGH SCHOOL - CLEVER, MO TO SCHIFFERDECKER PARK - JOPLIN, MO

MILEAGE OPTIONS

DAY ONE OPTIONS: You may choose the Short Route (40 miles), Regular Route (80 miles) or the Century Route (100 miles).

DAY TWO OPTIONS: — On Sunday, you may choose the Regular Route (70 miles) or another Century Route (100 miles) as you ride to the finish line at Clever.

DOUBLE CENTURY LOOP: This could be the physical challenge some of you are looking for! Century routes are optional on each day. We want you to enjoy the ride while raising money to fight MS in the Ozarks!

OVERNIGHT ACCOMODATIONS

OVERNIGHT LOCATION: The city of Joplin will bring you a memorable overnight experience. The city has welcomed our interest in their community, and they are working to ensure we provide a fun and memorable experience for you.

CAMPING: Camping is available on site as well as indoor sleeping in the Joplin Museum Complex on the property

SHUTTLES: We provide shuttles to and from specific hotels for a one-time fee of $5. Bicycles are not transported. If you plan on using the shuttle service, you MUST book your room at one of the designated hotels. *The MS Society only provides shuttle service to the specified hotels below.

START/FINISH

- The ride begins at Clever High School on Sept. 8.
- The start will be open from 7 to 7:30 a.m.
- The start is staggered to alleviate congestion during the first 10 miles of the ride. Top fundraisers are first in line!
- Cyclists will be taken to rest stop #1 if they start after 7:45 am.
- The second day will also begin at 7 a.m. in Joplin.
- The time that it takes you to ride and complete each day will depend on your pace.
- Riders will cross the finish line on Sept. 9. You will get your finish medallion, claim your luggage, grab food and listen to music. Don't forget to take your bicycle home!

THE VILLAGE

RELAX: After a fun day of riding, relax and unwind at the overnight. Gather your team and stake out a tent at the Village.

NOT ON A TEAM? Join us at the Broken Spoke tent to put your feet up and take it easy.
